substances, which pose a serious threat to the health and welfare of human beings and adversely affect the economic, cultural and political foundations of society,

Deeply concerned also by the steadily increasing inroads into various social groups made by illicit traffic in narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances, and particularly by the fact that children are used in many parts of the world as an illicit drug consumers market and for purposes of illicit production, distribution and trade in narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances, which entails a danger of incalculable gravity,

Recognizing the links between illicit traffic and other related organized criminal activities which undermine the legitimate economies and threaten the stability, security and sovereignty of States,

Recognizing also that illicit traffic is an international criminal activity, the suppression of which demands urgent attention and the highest priority,

Aware that illicit traffic generates large financial profits and wealth enabling transnational criminal organizations to penetrate, contaminate and corrupt the structures of government, legitimate commercial and financial business, and society at all its levels,

Determined to deprive persons engaged in illicit traffic of the proceeds of their criminal activities and thereby eliminate their main incentive for so doing,

Desiring to eliminate the root causes of the problem of abuse of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances, including the illicit demand for such drugs and substances and the enormous profits derived from illicit traffic,

Considering that measures are necessary to monitor certain substances, including precursors, chemicals and solvents, which are used in the manufacture of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances, the ready availability of which has led to an increase in the clandestine manufacture of such drugs and substances,

Determined to improve international co-operation in the suppression of illicit traffic by sea,

Recognizing that eradication of illicit traffic is a collective responsibility of all States and that, to that end, co-ordinated action within the framework of international co-operation is necessary,

Acknowledging the competence of the United Nations in the field of control of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances and desirous that the international organs concerned with such control should be within the framework of that Organization,

Reaffirming the guiding principles of existing treaties in the field of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances and the system of control which they embody,

Recognizing the need to reinforce and supplement the measures provided in the Single Convention on Narcotic Drugs, 1961,¹ that Convention as amended by the 1972² Protocol Amending the Single Convention on Narcotic Drugs, 1961, and the 1971³ Convention on Psychotropic Substances, in order to counter the magnitude and extent of illicit traffic and its grave consequences,

Recognizing also the importance of strengthening and enhancing effective legal means for international co-operation in criminal matters for suppressing the international criminal activities of illicit traffic,

Desiring to conclude a comprehensive, effective and operative international convention that is directed specifically against illicit traffic and that considers the various aspects of the problem as a whole, in particular those aspects not envisaged in the existing treaties in the field of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances,

Hereby agree as follows:

EXTRADITION

1. This article shall apply to the offences established by the Parties in accordance with article 3, paragraph 1.

2. Each of the offences to which this article applies shall be deemed to be included as an extraditable offence in any extradition treaty existing between Parties. The Parties undertake to include such offences as extraditable offences in every extradition treaty to be concluded between them.

3. If a Party which makes extradition conditional on the existence of a treaty receives a request for extradition from another Party with which it has no extradition treaty, it may consider this Convention as the legal basis for extradition in respect of any offence to which this article applies. The Parties which require detailed legislation in order to use this Convention as a legal basis for extradition shall consider enacting such legislation as may be necessary.

4. The Parties which do not make extradition conditional on the existence of a treaty shall recognize offences to which this article applies as extraditable offences between themselves.

5. Extradition shall be subject to the conditions provided for by the law of the requested Party or by applicable extradition treaties, including the grounds upon which the requested Party may refuse extradition.

6. In considering requests received pursuant to this article, the requested State may refuse to comply with such requests where there are substantial grounds leading its judicial or other competent authorities to believe that compliance would facilitate the prosecution or punishment of any person on account of his race, religion, nationality or political opinions, or would cause prejudice for any of those reasons to any person affected by the request.

7. The Parties shall endeavour to expedite extradition procedures and to simplify evidentiary requirements relating thereto in respect of any offence to which this article applies.

8. Subject to the provisions of its domestic law and its extradition treaties, the requested Party may, upon being satisfied that the circumstances so warrant and are urgent, and at the request of the requesting Party, take a person whose extradition is sought and who is present in its territory into custody or take other appropriate measures to ensure his presence at extradition proceedings.

9. Without prejudice to the exercise of any criminal jurisdiction established in accordance with its domestic law, a Party in whose territory an alleged offender is found shall:

(a) If it does not extradite him in respect of an offence established in accordance with article 3, paragraph 1, on the grounds set forth in article 4, paragraph 2, subparagraph (a), submit the case to its competent authorities for the purpose of prosecution, unless otherwise agreed with the requesting Party;

(b) If it does not extradite him in respect of such an offence and has established its jurisdiction in relation to that offence in accordance with article 4, paragraph 2, subparagraph (b), submit the case to its competent authorities for the purpose of prosecution, unless otherwise requested by the requesting Party for the purposes of preserving its legitimate jurisdiction.

10. If extradition, sought for purposes of enforcing a sentence, is refused because the person sought is a national of the requested Party, the requested Party shall, if its law so permits and in conformity with the requirements of such law, upon application of the requesting Party, consider the enforcement of the sentence which has been imposed under the law of the requesting Party, or the remainder thereof.

11. The Parties shall seek to conclude bilateral and multilateral agreements to carry out or to enhance the effectiveness of extradition.

12. The Parties may consider entering into bilateral or multilateral agreements, whether ad hoc or general, on the transfer to their country of persons sentenced to imprisonment and other forms of deprivation of liberty for offences to which this article applies, in order that they may complete their sentences there.

7. Paragraphs 8 to 19 of this article shall apply to requests made pursuant to this article if the Parties in question are not bound by a treaty of mutual legal assistance. If these Parties are bound by such a treaty, the corresponding provisions of that treaty shall apply unless the Parties agree to apply paragraphs 8 to 19 of this article in lieu thereof.

8. Parties shall designate an authority, or when necessary authorities, which shall have the responsibility and power to execute requests for mutual legal assistance or to transmit them to the competent authorities for execution. The authority or the authorities designated for this purpose shall be notified to the Secretary-General. Transmission of requests for mutual legal assistance and any communication related thereto shall be effected between the authorities designated by the Parties; this requirement shall be without prejudice to the right of a Party to require that such requests and communications be addressed to it through the diplomatic channel and, in urgent circumstances, where the Parties agree, through channels of the International Criminal Police Organization, if possible.

12. A request shall be executed in accordance with the domestic law of the requested Party and, to the extent not contrary to the domestic law of the requested Party and where possible, in accordance with the procedures specified in the request.

13. The requesting Party shall not transmit nor use information or evidence furnished by the requested Party for investigations, prosecutions or proceedings other than those stated in the request without the prior consent of the requested Party.

14. The requesting Party may require that the requested Party keep confidential the fact and substance of the request, except to the extent necessary to execute the request. If the requested Party cannot comply with the requirement of confidentiality, it shall promptly inform the requesting Party.

15. Mutual legal assistance may be refused:

(a) If the request is not made in conformity with the provisions of this article;

(b) If the requested Party considers that execution of the request is likely to prejudice its sovereignty, security, ordre public or other essential interests;

(c) If the authorities of the requested Party would be prohibited by its domestic law from carrying out the action requested with regard to any similar offence, had it been subject to investigation, prosecution or proceedings under their own jurisdiction;

2. If a Party or the Board has information which in its opinion may require the inclusion of a substance in Table I or Table II, it shall notify the Secretary-General and furnish him with the information in support of that notification. The procedure described in paragraphs 2 to 7 of this article shall also apply when a Party or the Board has information justifying the deletion of a substance from Table I or Table II, or the transfer of a substance from one Table to the other.

The Secretary-General shall transmit such notification, and any information which he considers relevant, to the Parties, to the Commission, and, where notification is made by a Party, to the Board. The Parties shall communicate their comments concerning the notification to the Secretary-General, together with all supplementary information which may assist the Board in establishing an assessment and the Commission in reaching a decision.

4. If the Board, taking into account the extent, importance and diversity of the licit use of the substance, and the possibility and ease of using alternate substances both for licit purposes and for the illicit manufacture of narcotic drugs or psychotropic substances, finds:

(a) That the substance is frequently used in the illicit manufacture of a narcotic drug or psychotropic substance;

(b) That the volume and extent of the illicit manufacture of a narcotic drug or psychotropic substance creates serious public health or social problems, so as to warrant international action, it shall communicate to the Commission an assessment of the substance, including the likely effect of adding the substance to either Table I or Table II on both licit use and illicit manufacture, together with recommendations of monitoring measures, if any, that would be appropriate in the light of its assessment.

5. The Commission, taking into account the comments submitted by the Parties and the comments and recommendations of the Board, whose assessment shall be determinative as to scientific matters, and also taking into due consideration any other relevant factors, may decide by a two-thirds majority of its members to place a substance in Table I or Table II.

6. Any decision of the Commission taken pursuant to this article shall be communicated by the Secretary-General to all States and other entities which are, or which are entitled to become, Parties to this Convention, and to the Board. (a) Establish and maintain a system to monitor international trade in substances in Table I and Table II in order to facilitate the identification of suspicious transactions. Such monitoring systems shall be applied in close co-operation with manufacturers, importers, exporters, wholesalers and retailers, who shall inform the competent authorities of suspicious orders and transactions.

(b) Provide for the seizure of any substance in Table I or Table II if there is sufficient evidence that it is for use in the illicit manufacture of a narcotic drug or psychotropic substance.

(c) Notify, as soon as possible, the competent authorities and services of the Parties concerned if there is reason to believe that the import, export or transit of a substance in Table I or Table II is destined for the illicit manufacture of narcotic drugs or psychotropic substances, including in particular information about the means of payment and any other essential elements which led to that belief.

(d) Require that imports and exports be properly labelled and documented. Commercial documents such as invoices, cargo manifests, customs, transport and other shipping documents shall include the names, as stated in Table I or Table II, of the substances being imported or exported, the quantity being imported or exported, and the name and address of the exporter, the importer and, when available, the consignee.

(e) Ensure that documents referred to in subparagraph (d) of this paragraph are maintained for a period of not less than two years and may be made available for inspection by the competent authorities.

10. (a) In addition to the provisions of paragraph 9, and upon request to the Secretary-General by the interested Party, each Party from whose territory a substance in Table I is to be exported shall ensure that, prior to such export, the following information is supplied by its competent authorities to the competent authorities of the importing country:

12. Each Party shall furnish annually to the Board, in the form and manner provided for by it and on forms made available by it, information on:

(a) The amounts seized of substances in Table I and Table II and, when known, their origin;

(b) Any substance not included in Table I or Table II which is identified as having been used in illicit manufacture of narcotic drugs or psychotropic substances, and which is deemed by the Party to be sufficiently significant to be brought to the attention of the Board;

(c) Methods of diversion and illicit manufacture.

13. The Board shall report annually to the Commission on the implementation of this article and the Commission shall periodically review the adequacy and propriety of Table I and Table II.

3. (a) The Parties may co-operate to increase the effectiveness of eradication efforts. Such co-operation may, inter alia, include support, when appropriate, for integrated rural development leading to economically viable alternatives to illicit cultivation. Factors such as access to markets, the availability of resources and prevailing socio-economic conditions should be taken into account before such rural development programmes are implemented. The Parties may agree on any other appropriate measures of co-operation.

(b) The Parties shall also facilitate the exchange of scientific and technical information and the conduct of research concerning eradication.

(c) Whenever they have common frontiers, the Parties shall seek to co-operate in eradication programmes in their respective areas along those frontiers.

4. The Parties shall adopt appropriate measures aimed at eliminating or reducing illicit demand for narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances, with a view to reducing human suffering and eliminating financial incentives for illicit traffic. These measures may be based, inter alia, on the recommendations of the United Nations, specialized agencies of the United Nations such as the World Health Organization, and other competent international organizations, and on the Comprehensive Multidisciplinary Outline adopted by the International Conference on Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking, held in 1987, as it pertains to governmental and non-governmental agencies and private efforts in the fields of prevention, treatment and rehabilitation. The Parties may enter into bilateral or multilateral agreements or arrangements aimed at eliminating or reducing illicit demand for narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances.

The Parties so requested shall render such assistance within the means available to them.

3. A Party which has reasonable grounds to suspect that a vessel exercising freedom of navigation in accordance with international law and flying the flag or displaying marks of registry of another Party is engaged in illicit traffic may so notify the flag State, request confirmation of registry and, if confirmed, request authorization from the flag State to take appropriate measures in regard to that vessel.

BOLIVIA

[SPANISH TEXT — TEXTE ESPAGNOL]

La República de Bolivia, en relación al Artículo 3, párrafo 2, deja constancia de su expresa reserva y declara inaplicable, para su caso, las disposiciones del texto mencionado que pudieran interpretarse para establecer la tipicidad criminal del uso, consumo, posesión, adquisición y el cultivo de hoja de coca para consumo personal.

Para Bolivia tal interpretación de la disposición es contraria a principios de su Constitución y a conceptos básicos de su ordenamiento jurídico que consagran el respeto a la cultura, los usos legítimos, los valores y la personalidad de las nacionalidades que integran la población boliviana.

Bolivia reconoce en su ordenamiento jurídico el carácter ancestral del uso lícito de la hoja de coca cuyos usos se remontan a siglos en gran parte de la población boliviana. Bolivia, al plantear esta reserva, considera:

- que la hoja de coca no es, por sí misma, un estupefaciente o sustancia sicotrópica;
- que su uso y consumo no causan alteraciones psíquicas o físicas mayores que las resultantes del consumo de otras plantas y productos cuyo uso es universal y libre;
- que la hoja de coca tiene amplios usos medicinales amparados por la práctica de la medicina tradicional defendida por la OMS y confirmada por la ciencia;
- que puede ser usada con fines industriales;
- que la hoja de coca es de uso y consumo generales en Bolivia, por lo cual, si se aceptara aquella interpretación de la disposición mencionada, gran parte de la población boliviana podría ser considerada criminal y sancionada como tal, lo que hace que la interpretación del artículo en el sentido mencionado sea inaplicable;
- que es necesario dejar constancia de que la hoja de coca se convierte en pasta, sulfato y clorhidrato de cocaína cuando se la transforma mediante procesos químicos en los cuales intervienen precursores, equipos y materiales que no se fabrican ni provienen de Bolivia.

Por otro lado, la República de Bolivia continuará aplicando todas las medidas legales pertinentes para controlar el cultivo ilícito de coca destinado a la producción de estupefacientes, así como el consumo, uso y adquisición ilícitos de estupefacientes y sustancias sicotrópicas.

[TRANSLATION]

The Republic of Bolivia places on record its express reservation to article 3, paragraph 2, and declares the inapplicability to Bolivia of those provisions of that paragraph which could be interpreted as establishing as a criminal offence the use, consumption, possession, purchase or cultivation of the coca leaf for personal consumption.

For Bolivia such an interpretation of that paragraph is contrary to principles of its Constitution and basic concepts of its legal system which embody respect for the culture, legitimate practices, values and attributes of the nationalities making up Bolivia's population.

Bolivia's legal system recognizes the ancestral nature of the licit use of the coca leaf which, for much of Bolivia's population, dates back over centuries. In formulating this reservation, Bolivia considers that:

The coca leaf is not, in and of itself, a narcotic drug or psychotropic substances;

The use and consumption of the coca leaf do not cause psychological or physical changes greater than those resulting from the consumption of other plants and products which are in free and universal use;

The coca leaf is widely used for medicinal purposes in the practice of traditional medicine, the validity of which is upheld by WHO and confirmed by scientific findings;

The coca leaf can be used for industrial purposes;

The coca leaf is widely used and consumed in Bolivia, with the result that, if such an interpretation of the above-mentioned paragraph was accepted, a large part of Bolivia's population could be considered criminals and punished as

La République de Bolivie formule une réserve expresse à l'égard du paragraphe 2 de l'article 3 et déclare que lesdites dispositions, qui pourraient s'interpréter pour qualifier de criminelles l'utilisation, la consommation, l'acquisition et la culture de la feuille de coca pour l'usage personnel, lui sont inapplicables.

Pour la Bolivie, une telle interprétation desdites dispositions est contraire aux principes de sa Constitution et aux règles fondamentales de son ordre juridique qui consacre le respect de la culture, des utilisations licites, des valeurs et de la personnalité des nationalités qui composent la population bolivienne.

L'ordre juridique bolivien reconnaît le caractère ancestral de l'utilisation licite de la feuille de coca, qu'une grande partie de la population bolivienne utilise depuis des siècles. En formulant cette réserve, la Bolivie considère :

Que la feuille de coca n'est pas en soi un stupéfiant ou une substance psychotrope;

Que son utilisation et sa consommation n'entraînent pas d'altérations psychiques ou physiques plus profondes que celles résultant de la consommation d'autres plantes ou produits dont l'utilisation est libre et universelle;

Que la feuille de coca a de nombreuses propriétés médicinales attestées par la pratique de la médecine traditionnelle défendu par l'OMS et confirmées par la science;

Qu'elle peut être utilisée à des fins industrielles;

Qu'elle est largement utilisée et consommée en Bolivie et que, par conséquent, si l'on acceptait d'interpréter ainsi la disposition en question, une grande partie de la population bolivienne pourrait être qualifiée de criminelle et such; such an interpretation is therefore inapplicable;

It must be placed on record that the coca leaf is transformed into cocaine paste, sulphate and hydrochlorate when it is subjected to chemical processes which involve the use of precursors, equipment and materials which are neither manufactured in or originate in Bolivia.

At the same time, the Republic of Bolivia will continue to take all necessary legal measures to control the illicit cultivation of coca for the production of narcotic drugs, as well as the illicit consumption use and purchase of narcotic drugs and psychotropic substances.

sanctionnée comme telle; c'est pourquoi l'interprétation de l'article dans le sens indiqué est inapplicable à la Bolivie;

Qu'il est nécessaire de préciser que la feuille de coca peut être transformée en pâte, en sulphate et en chlorhydrate de cocaïne par des procédés chimiques faisant intervenir des précurseurs, des équipements et des matériels qui ne sont pas fabriqués en Bolivie et qui n'en proviennent pas.

En revanche, la République de Bolivie continuera à prendre toutes les mesures légales pertinentes pour lutter contre la culture illicite du coca destinée à la production de stupéfiants, ainsi que contre la consommation, l'utilisation et l'acquisition illicites de stupéfiants et de substances psychotropes.

La Colombie formule une réserve à l'égard du paragraphe 1 de l'article 9 de la Convention, en particulier les alinéas b, c, d et e, sa législation n'autorisant pas de coopération entre son pouvoir judiciaire et l'étranger pour les enquêtes pénales, ni la constitution de groupes avec d'autres pays à cet effet;

Le Gouvernement de la République islamique d'Iran tient à formuler une réserve à l'égard du paragraphe 3 de l'article 6 de la Convention, cette disposition allant à l'encontre de son droit interne.

Il tient également à formuler une réserve à l'égard des paragraphes 2 et 3 de l'article 32 vu qu'il ne se considère pas lié par la compétence obligatoire de la Cour internationale de Justice et qu'il estime que tout différend entre les Parties au sujet de l'application ou de l'interprétation de la Convention doit être réglé par des négociations directes par la voie diplomatique.

NETHERLANDS

PAYS-BAS

[TRADUCTION — TRANSLATION]

“1. Article 1 — Definition of Illicit Traffic”

During the initial stages of this Conference, the delegation of the Netherlands proposed to amend articles 15, 17, 18 and 19 (final numbering) in order to replace the generic phrase “illicit traffic” by more specific language (e.g. “illicit transport”).

To some extent the underlying concerns have been met by the introduction in article 15 of a specific reference to the “offences established in accordance with article 3, paragraph 1”. On the other hand, articles 17, 18 and 19 still contain references to “illicit traffic”. In the case of article 18, the reference is even to “illicit traffic in narcotic drugs, psychotropic substances and substances in table I and table II”.

It is our understanding that, given the scope of these articles, the term “illicit traffic” has to be understood in a limited sense, in each case taking into account the specific context. In applying these articles, we would therefore have to rely on the chapeau of article 1, allowing for a contextual application of the relevant definition.

2. Article 3

(a) The delegation of the Kingdom of the Netherlands notes with respect to article 3, paragraph 1 (subparagraph (b) (i) and (ii), and subparagraph (c) (i)) that the Drafting Committee has replaced the terms “knowing that such property is derived from an offence or offences set forth in paragraph 1” by: “knowing that such property is derived from an offence or offences established in accordance with paragraph 1.”

1. Article 1^{er} — Définition du trafic illicite

Au début de la présente conférence, la délégation néerlandaise a proposé de modifier les articles 15, 17, 18 et 19 (numérotation finale) de manière à remplacer l’expression générique « trafic illicite » par une expression plus précise (par exemple « transport illicite »).

Les préoccupations qui nous ont amenés à faire cette proposition ont, dans une certaine mesure, été apaisées par l’introduction à l’article 15 d’une référence plus précise aux « infractions établies conformément au paragraphe 1 de l’article 3 ». En revanche, les articles 17, 18 et 19 continuent de parler de « trafic illicite ». L’article 18 va même jusqu’à faire référence au « trafic illicite des stupéfiants, des substances psychotropes et des substances inscrites au tableau I et au tableau II ».

Nous considérons que, vu la portée desdits articles, l’expression « trafic illicite » doit être interprétée de manière restrictive en tenant compte du contexte précis dans chaque cas. En appliquant ces articles, nous devons donc nous référer à l’introduction à l’article premier qui permet d’appliquer la définition pertinente d’après le contexte.

2. Article 3

a) La délégation du Royaume des Pays-Bas note à propos des alinéas b, i et ii, et c, i, du paragraphe 1 de l’article 3 que le Comité de rédaction a remplacé les termes « dont l’auteur sait qu’ils proviennent de l’une des infractions prévues au paragraphe 1 » par les termes « dont l’auteur sait qu’ils proviennent de l’une des infractions établies conformément au paragraphe 1. »

The delegation accepts this change with the understanding that this not affect the applicability of the paragraphs referred to in cases where the offender knows that property is derived from an offence or offences that may have been established and committed under the jurisdiction of a foreign State.

(b) With respect to article 3, paragraph 6, the delegation of the Kingdom of the Netherlands notes that its provisions cover offences established both under paragraph 1 and paragraph 2. In view of the provisions of paragraph 4 (d) and paragraph 11 of the same article, the delegation understands that the measure of discretionary legal powers relating to the prosecution for offences established in accordance with paragraph 2 may in practice be wider than for offences established in accordance with paragraph 1.

(c) With respect to article 3, paragraphs 7 and 8, it is the understanding of the delegation of the Kingdom of the Netherlands that these provisions do not require the establishment of specific rules and regulations on the early release of convicted persons and the statute of limitations in respect of offences, covered by paragraph 1 of the article, which are different from such rules and regulations in respect of other, equally serious, offences. Consequently it is the delegations' understanding that the relevant legislation presently in force within the Kingdom sufficiently and appropriately meets the concerns expressed by the terms of these provisions.

Article 17

We understand that reference (in paragraph 3) to "a vessel exercising freedom of navigation" to mean a vessel navigating beyond the external limits of the territorial sea.

The safeguard-clause contained in paragraph 11 of the Article aims in our

La délégation néerlandaise accepte ce changement, étant entendu qu'il n'affecte pas l'applicabilité des paragraphes visés dans les cas où l'auteur de l'infraction sait que les biens proviennent de l'une des infractions qui ont pu être établies et commises dans la juridiction d'un Etat étranger.

b) S'agissant du paragraphe 6 de l'article 3, la délégation du Royaume des Pays-Bas note que ses dispositions visent les infractions établies conformément au paragraphe 1 et au paragraphe 2. Etant donné les dispositions du paragraphe 4 d et du paragraphe 11 du même article, selon l'interprétation de la délégation néerlandaise, les pouvoirs discrectionnaires légaux en matière de poursuite d'infractions établies conformément au paragraphe 2 peuvent dans la pratique être plus étendus que dans le cas d'infractions établies conformément au paragraphe 1.

c) En ce qui concerne les paragraphes 7 et 8 de l'article 3, la délégation du Royaume des Pays-Bas est d'avis que ces dispositions n'imposent pas d'établir des règles expresses concernant la libération anticipée des personnes condamnées et la prescription concernant les infractions visées au paragraphe 1 dudit article, qui diffèrent des règles prévues pour d'autres infractions tout aussi graves. En conséquence, la délégation néerlandaise pense que la législation en vigueur aux Pays-Bas sur ce sujet répond de manière suffisante et appropriée aux préoccupations exprimées par les termes de ces dispositions.

Nous interprétons la référence (au paragraphe 3) à « un navire exerçant la liberté de navigation » comme signifiant un navire navigant au-delà des limites extérieures de la mer territoriale.

La clause de sauvegarde énoncée au paragraphe 11 dudit article vise à notre view at safeguarding the rights and obligations of Coastal States within the contiguous zone.

To the extent that vessels navigating in the contiguous zone act in infringement of the Coastal State's customs and other regulations, the Coastal State is entitled to exercise, in conformity with the relevant rules of the international law of the sea, jurisdiction to prevent and/or punish such infringement."

avis à sauvegarder les droits et les obligations des États côtiers à l'intérieur de la zone contiguë.

Dans la mesure où les navires navigant dans la zone contiguë enfreignent la réglementation douanière et autre de l'État côtier, celui-ci a, conformément aux règles pertinentes du droit international de la mer, compétence pour prévenir et/ou punir cette infraction.

Réservation

Peru formulates an express reservation to paragraph 1 (a) (ii) of article 3, concerning offences and sanctions; that paragraph includes cultivation among the activities established as criminal offences, without drawing the necessary clear distinction between licit and illicit cultivation. Accordingly, Peru also formulates an express reservation to the scope of the definition of illicit traffic contained in article 1 in so far as it refers to article 3, paragraph 1 (a) (ii).

In accordance with the provisions of article 32, paragraph 4, Peru declares, on signing the Convention against Illicit Traffic in Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances, that it does not consider itself bound by article 32, paragraphs 2 and 3, in respect of this Convention, it agrees to the referral of disputes to the International Court of Justice only if all the parties, and not just one, agree to such a procedure.

UNITED REPUBLIC OF TANZANIA

“Subject to a further determination on ratification, the United Republic of Tanzania declares that the provisions of Article 17, paragraph 11 shall not be construed as either restraining in any manner the rights and privileges of a coastal State as envisaged by the relevant provisions relating to the Economic Exclusive Zone of the Law of the Sea Convention, or, as according third parties rights other than those so recognised under Convention.”

En conséquence, il formule également une réserve expresse à l'égard de la portée de la définition du trafic illicite donnée à l'article premier où il est fait allusion à l'alinéa a, ii, du paragraphe 1 de l'article 3.

Déclaration

Conformément aux dispositions du paragraphe 4 de l'article 32, le Pérou déclare, en signant la Convention contre le trafic illicite des stupéfiants et des substances psychotropes, qu'il ne se considère pas comme lié par les paragraphes 2 et 3 de l'article 32 parce qu'aux fins de la présente Convention, il est d'accord pour toujours soumettre les différends à la Cour internationale de Justice avec l'accord des parties concernées, en excluant toute mesure unilatérale.
